Testimonials

"So many data companies promise the world, yet deliver nothing. HJ Marketing are a refreshing change to this. The data they have supplied is good and a large proportion of clients have arranged appointments. Andy Chesterman understands our industry and which files work, while offering first-class support throughout.

I will be placing my next order with HJM and I strongly recommend other companies to use them as their data provider."

Robert Phipps, Director
Pembroke Will Writers, October 2008

"From a file of 2,000 contacts supplied to us by HJ Marketing, we achieved a 12% level of response. In all my experience of telemarketing for will-related offers, this data is amongst the most responsive."

"We have worked with HJ Marketing during the past year and would recommend them for a number of reasons. They very quickly understood our business model, our requirements and expectations. By combining a prompt and reliable level of service with excellent communication, they have established themselves as our preferred data sourcing and planning partner. We look forward to a long-term partnership with them."
